It is ordered that the Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

The Court finds from a consideration of the record that the Defendant's economic circumstances allow for restitution payments pursuant to the following schedule:

It is ordered that the Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $17,675 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount

The fine shall be paid in full immediately.

Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

The Defendant shall possess and use only those digital devices, screen usernames, email accounts, social media accounts, messaging applications, and cloud storage accounts, as well as any passwords or passcodes for all such digital devices and accounts, that have been disclosed to the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any new devices, accounts, applications, passwords, or passcodes are to be disclosed to the Probation Officer prior to the first use. A digital device is any electronic system or device that can access, view, obtain, store, or transmit digital data related to email accounts, financial accounts, and social media accounts.

The Defendant shall submit the Defendant's person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computers, cell phones, other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, email accounts, social media accounts, cloud storage accounts, or other areas under the Defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The Defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the Defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons conduct a mental health evaluation of the Defendant and provide all necessary treatment.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the Defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is further ordered that the Defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons at or before 12 noon, on August 12, 2025. In the absence of such designation, the Defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the First Street U.S. Courthouse 350 W. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
